Course Description

The focus of this course is to become familiar with weightlifting methods used to improve athletic performance. Students will be exposed to different types of high-performance training methods implemented by strength and conditioning coaches.

Course Objectives

1. To be able to proficiently demonstrate and teach basic weightlifting methods centered on movement patterns – push, pull, rotation.
2. Have a basic understanding of the teaching and demonstrating of the main Olympic Lifts (clean, snatch) as well as understand the progressions to these lifts.
3. Have the proficiency to identify and properly cue all the movements demonstrated in a safe and proper manner.

Dress

Appropriate activity clothing for Physical Participation – clean shoes, t-shirt, shorts or pants.

Evaluation

Attendance	20%
Technical Evaluation	40%
• Students will be asked to demonstrate two exercises with correct technique
In-class Teaching Demonstration	20%
• Students will be asked to teach an exercise and to demonstrate which teaching cues to use to overcome technique problems
Written Test	20%

Attendance is MANDATORY. Missing more than 3 classes without a valid reason will lead to dismissal from the course.

Grading, Assignments Submission, Lateness Penalties and Missed Tests

Grading: (A B C F)

Students may be marked on a (pass/fail) basis. Students have to select this option in the first two weeks of the course.

(For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/2010-2011/policies/index.htm>)

Missed Tests or Missed Classes and Lateness Penalty

Students with a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds etc, which is confirmed by supporting documentation (e.g. doctor's letter), may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.
